

HDI Railing Systems is part of the award-winning AIA Continuing Education Systems and is a Registered Provider.

HDI offers the following CES course to complete 1 CES/HSW credit unit:

“An Introduction to the Process of Designing Guardrails and Handrails”

Learning objectives for this session include:

- Basic architectural railing design considerations
- Knowledge of various material strengths and options
- Material cost and life cycle analysis
- Knowledge of building codes and Federal ADA guidelines
- Design considerations for accessibility and barrier free living

Please contact your local representative to coordinate a session:

Linda Savoie
West Coast
310.475.3337
lsavoie@HDIRailings.com

Mark Treitel
East Coast
717.285.4088
MTreitel@HDIRailings.com